ANSWER KEY: THE GREEK GODS

God Image	Greek Name	Powers/Attributes
	Zeus	This god is the most powerful of all the Greek gods. He is the protector of all gods and humans. He holds lightning bolts in his hands and is surrounded by clouds because he is the ruler of the sky.
	Hermes	He is the messenger to all the gods and goddesses. Because he travels to deliver messages, he is also known as a protector of travelers. He wears shoes with wings on them.
	Aphrodite	This beautiful goddess is the goddess of love and beauty. She wears a blue dress and is often holding a mirror or a seashell.
	Apollo	This god loves to play music and dance because he is the god of the arts. He is often holding a harp, a musical instrument with strings.
	Poseidon	This god rules the seas and all water. He often holds in his hand a trident to move and command the ocean.
	Ares	This god of war is the most powerful god except for Zeus. This god holds a sword and shield in his hands to fight and protect against others.

	Artemis	She is the goddess of hunting and the moon. She is often carrying her bow and arrow. In the image, she is hunting an animal with a spear.
	Hera	This goddess is the protector of family and marriage. She protects the lives of women during childbirth.
	Hephaestus	This god is the master of metalworking and has incredible skill in creating things with his hands. He has a hammer in his hand to create tools.
	Athena	This goddess has a great fighting spirit and is the goddess of war and protecting. She wears a helmet holds a spear in her left hand.
	Hades	This is the god of death and the underworld. He has a dog with three heads by his side and is often shown surrounded by flames, like in the underworld.
	Demeter	As the goddess of harvest, she is surrounded by butterflies and other animals and plants of nature. She is important to the Greek people for farming food.